

American-Vietnamese War Memorial Alliance

Mission: To honor all American, South Vietnamese, and Allied soldiers of the Vietnam War through memorials, events and educational activities.

Goal: To construct the Vietnam War memorial shown below.

- The memorial will permanently display the US and former Republic of Vietnam flags (as known as the Vietnamese Freedom and Heritage flag). The Auburn City Council approved construction of the memorial in the city's Les Gove Park. The Alliance wishes to thank Auburn Mayor Nancy Backus, former Mayor Peter Lewis, City Council members and staff, and all those who have supported development and approval of the memorial.
- The Wall of Honor and Memorial Tile: With your donation of $100 you may create a memorial tile to recognize an American, South Vietnamese, or Allied soldiers of the Vietnam War, living or dead. Tiles will be permanently displayed on The Wall of Honor at the Vietnam War Memorial. Memorial tile order forms can be downloaded from our website at: <http://honorvietnamvets.org/memorial-tiles.html>.

Our Organization:

The Alliance is an all-volunteer, nonprofit organization. Your tax-deductible donation will go directly to building the memorial in Auburn's Les Gove Park. For more information visit our website at: <http://honorvietnamvets.org>
